In April 1882, a meeting which took place after a match between Dunfermline and a Fifeshire XI was held at St Margaret's Hotel in Dunfermline to propose the formation of the Fifeshire FA. This was ratified after a subsequent meeting. Dunfermline was adopted as the headquarters of the new association and the original members were Blairadam (Kelty), Burntisland Thistle, Rossend (Burntisland), Cowdenbeath Rangers, Raith Rovers (from Cowdenbeath, not the later Kirkcaldy club), Dunfermline, Dunfermline United, St Leonards (Dunfermline), Kirkcaldy Wanderers and the North Queensferry club Vale of Forth. By the time of the first Fifeshire Cup competition later that year, Vale of Forth had dropped out, while the two Cowdenbeath clubs had merged as Cowdenbeath FC.
